

Autistic Teens & Young Adults United Presents: Expressive Art Workshop

What?

We meet up for a variety of fun social activities, workshops, special interest nights and more! Autistics United is a non-profit organization run BY Autistics, FOR Autistics (and families and friends)! For this month's teen and young adult group, we will focus on expressing ourselves on the topic of autism acceptance through writing, music, visual arts, drama, and dance. We will have an arts table for writing, making and creating art. We will also have an area for dancing, singing, talking, and reading or reciting poetry.

When? Saturday, April 9 from 1-3 p.m.

Where? Arms Around ASD @Asheville Mall 3 Tunnel Road, Suite L-40, Asheville, NC 28805

Who?

Autistic teens and young adults and their families/caregivers

What to bring?

Bring a family member or friend. Bring a snack or drink if you would like. Just make sure to clean up after yourself and throw your trash away.

Note: Try to give your young autistic their independence. It's perfectly okay to go help them when they need it, but you should also allow your child/person you're supporting to practice their independence in the group in their own way. Please remain in the facility while the group is in session. Please remember that if you have to leave we, the A.U. nonprofit, cannot be held responsible for any accidents or issues that may occur. For this reason, it is best to stay on site.

Things to keep in mind:

Since these events are intended to encourage socializing and interacting with others, please limit the use of electronics unless needed to assist with communication. We are a casual group and want to provide a safe and positive environment for everyone.
